TopBloc's Advisory Service Strategy

Our Advisory Services help you to tackle your organization's digital transformation by providing you with the following deliverables

1

Assessment

TopBloc's Advisory Services begin with an assessment to understand the state of the company's current enterprise systems and business processes. During the assessment, TopBloc's team of Workday experts will help you to complete a business process to applications mapping analysis. This will allow us to identify which systems you are using, which business processes they interact with, and how interconnected these systems are.

2

Strategy

Upon completing the assessment of your current state, TopBloc will review the mapping analysis and work with your team to identify improvement opportunities where your systems can be enhanced or replaced to facilitate increased automation, scalability, and efficiency. The presented strategy will outline how your company should be operating based on your identified organizational goals.

3

Roadmap

Next, TopBloc will synthesize the discussed strategy into a roadmap of actionable steps your organization can execute in order to meet your identified goals. The roadmap will be presented along with a recommended timeline to complete these steps.

4

Best Practice Recommendations

Lastly, based on your assessment, strategy and roadmap, TopBloc will share a set of pragmatic and impactful best practice recommendations designed to optimize your overall operational efficiency leveraging the greatest capabilities that other companies have found to be highly successful. TopBloc then partners with you to rapidly deploy your roadmap and recommendations so you can achieve your strategic objectives in the fastest most financially efficient manner possible.
